

“ We must use time creatively,
and forever realize that time is always ripe to do right.”

— Martin Luther King, Jr.
Letters from Birmingham Jail

"Sign of the Past"

The original sign of the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tennessee where Dr. King spent his last night and was tragically murdered. The motel now marks the site of The National Civil Rights Museum, an institution which teaches about the civil rights movement from slavery to the present struggles for freedom around the globe.
